Advising Update from Statewide Meeting

- x There are no updates from statewide because they have not had any new meetings. L. Vega opted to share the professional development workshop provided to advising directors on cultural competency on a September 16th meeting, which was based on the book Dearborn, D. K. & Berardo, K. (2012). Building cultural competence: Innovative activities and models. Sterling, VA: Stylus Publishing, delivered by Dr. Tina Jordan and her team from CSU Sacramento. L. Vega noted that culture is a framed space, where not everything is visible, and we need to dig deeper and put effort to learn on how to deliver a high quality academic experience to our students. Main goal of cultural competency is to build inclusiveness, self other systemwide has a conference on October 13th, sponsored by Sacramento State. Present to our CSUB SSN.

Program Plan Mapper

- x L. Zuzarte stated that the Program Plan Mapper may now be taken off the parking lot in the agenda because they are very close to going live with it. She expects to have it out within this week or next week.
- x The Academic Operations website will have a section for both the new and old roadmaps, and a link to the Program Plan Mapper.

Academic Support Services

- x L. Vega shared that the Academic Support Services Report had showed that there was not a lot of data on how they were doing in terms advising outcome data. For instance, data on how many students they see, what impression and suggestions students have, as well as the kind of students served. The implementation of Runner connect will help gather this data in the future, because the system allows advisors to do campaigns and collect information about advising sessions with students.
- x D. Jackson and B. Street gave a presentation on
