

Faculty Teaching and Learning Center Advisory Board (FTLC)

The Faculty Teaching and Learning Center Advisory Board is composed of six faculty members and one administrator. One faculty member shall be elected from each of the 4 schools, one At -Large faculty member elected by the General Faculty, and one librarian elected by the library faculty. Faculty members shall serve staggered two resources to support faculty in reaching their professional goals and in helping them to create an effective learning environment for our students.

Name	Department	Term
------	------------	------

