Workshops: Staff Development

Why is staff development important in retaining nurses?

- -Career paths; investment; feeling valued; life-long learning; value and improving self and others
- -Career development; aspirations; improve confidence; personal development; creates more flexible teams
- -Harnessing energy
- -Freedom to act and make lasting change
- -Job satisfaction
- -Learner and professional autonomy
- -An individual drive for structured learning
- -Confidence, consolidation
- -Workforce planning- what do we need staff to develop in?
  - -Talent management, but bringing out the best in all- link to workforce planning
- -Service needs-models of care
- -Career progression- somewhere to go
- -Feeling valued and invested in (time, relevant, protected time, high level appraisal, training needs and analysis, money)

What are your experiences of the role of staff development in retention?

- -Nurse L and D manager; RCN accredited preceptorship; tailor made courses/skills updates; nursing times modules
- -Encouragement is key; personal circumstances impact on this; attitudes toward development; yearly appraisal/ balanced approach
- -Staff doing training and then leaving, learning contract doesn't hold up.
- -Staff signed up to training prior to joining then lots of staff out at that time.
- -Leadership vs. Clinical

-Poor staff engagement

WLB

-Is education getting our nurses ready for NQN?

Solutions:

- -Backfill to release for training
- -Train lower bands- take time to get to trained positions
- -Incentive
- -Employing staff influx- E & T can't cope
- -B teams ED 1 in 6 weeks; 1 day dedicated
- -Organisational mapping
- -Potential talent management
- -Structured strategic planning in line with national drives
- -More flexible working; best use of different contracts
- -Equitable and private and other employers
- -Make the best use of our retirees
- -Mentor-coach- once confident in doing this it should be a natural part of the day/placement, leading to happier students and better recruitment/retention.