

CSU Learn

Quick Start Guide

With more than 75,000 books, courses and videos on everything from Adobe Acrobat to work-life balance, you're sure to find something that meets your career interests. In CSU Learn you can:

- Like ♥ your favorites for easy access
- Self-report external learning such as conference sessions or Ted Talks
- One-click access to your transcript, assigned learning and campus training

Quick access to your profile

Browse more than 60 topics more than 75,000 books, videos and courses

context-sensitive help

One-click access to assigned learning

Quickly revisit your last learning activities

Your learning history in one place

See upcoming classes at your campus

The image shows a screenshot of the CSU Learn web application interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with a user profile icon on the left and a search icon on the right. Below the navigation bar is a large banner area with the text 'CSU Learn' and 'and professional development'. Below the banner is a grid of four cards, each with a different icon and text. The cards are: 1. 'One-click access to assigned learning' with a book icon. 2. 'Quickly revisit your last learning activities' with a calendar icon. 3. 'Your learning history in one place' with a document icon. 4. 'See upcoming classes at your campus' with a calendar icon. Red lines connect the callout text to the corresponding elements in the interface.

Simply click the Assigned Learning button (lower-left on the home page).

You'll see all your learning activities (assigned, critical, upcoming etc.) listed on one easy-to-access page.